Notes

Funeral for the late Mrs Pam Cook – Service of Thanksgiving at New Road Methodist Church Tuesday 27th July 3.45pm

As from Monday 19th July with the lifting of restrictions please note that masks can be worn in church if you feel more comfortable to do so.

Social Distancing seating will be removed, however if you would prefer to have space around you, please let the steward know as you arrive and this will be accommodated.

Hopefully we will be able to sing. It is recommended that the offering is still received as we leave.

READ

Mark 6.30-34,53-56

Jesus is in demand once again, news of his teaching and actions is spreading rapidly. He tries to find a quiet place, recognising its value for himself and the disciples, but the crowds still follow.

A note on the passage.

Jesus experiences the tensions in his ministry, tensions which we all feel in some areas of our lives. He feels compelled to be useful and busy but also recognises the need to be quiet and to draw on inner strength. He encourages others to find their quiet place, too. In order to show compassion and to care for others, we need to nurture ourselves spiritually. Ask yourself: How and where do I find time to be still and find energy to carry on? Can I encourage others to find stillness too?.

Where could you make a quiet 'corner' in your home?

Reflection

Look back across your day and identify where and how you experienced any moments of stillness.

Remember that even in your busy-ness, God was with you. You may not have been aware of it, you may have forgotten – God did not. Ask yourself what new insights today has given you about God, yourself, or others.
