Bible reading Matthew 16:21–28

The cost and reward of following Jesus

Having acknowledged the truth of Peter's declaration, Jesus tells his friends what kind of king he will be: one that suffers. And he tells them that they too will suffer if they come after him; it is the only way to find the life they seek.

First Impressions

- What have you done that was scary but rewarding?
- What, for you, are the rewards of following Jesus?
- And the costs?

Pray

Father God,

When things are tough: help us to walk with you. When life is good: help us to walk with you. On the good days, the bad days and the average days: help us to walk with you. Amen.

REFLECT

We see the ups and downs of Peter's life. Earlier Peter recognised Jesus as Messiah. Now, after Jesus' stinging rebuke, Peter falls silent, and next Peter will go up the mountain with Jesus to witness the Transfiguration.

We are like Peter: Sometimes we get it right, sometimes we fall flat on our faces. Reflect on your ups and downs and how God forgives and offers us the opportunity to continue the adventure of Christian faith.
