Read Matthew 4.1-11 Jesus is led by the Spirit into the wilderness where he undergoes a time of temptation. He is challenged to perform miracles to gratify himself, test God and worship the devil. On each occasion, Jesus uses Scripture to help him overcome the temptations. The devil leaves him and he is assisted by angels

A note on the passage.

These temptations examine Jesus' relationship with his Father. He knows that he can rely on the word of God to sustain him. He is also confident in his Father's love recognising that he will follow his mission to the end, remaining loyal to his Father.

What temptations can you see in this painting?

RESIST

Practise resistance using your favourite chocolate bar or other indulgence (e.g. a favourite game on your phone...or anything). Choose a day when you are at home most of the time. Put your treat near you all through the day. How do you feel when you see it there? Write a prayer to say every time you're tempted to enjoy the treat. Are you able to resist? At the end of the day, ask yourself: What have I learnt about myself and God?

I wonder if Jesus modelled the Lord's Prayer on his time spent in the wilderness? So much of it fits with his experience. Use the Lord's Prayer as your daily prayer this week, say each line really slowly, asking God to highlight a particular aspect of it for you to focus on each day. Is there anything God is asking you to do as a result of this prayer?
