

Notices

Monday 20th March –7.30pm Brierley Hill Choral

Tuesday 21st March – 10.00 visit from Mount Pleasant Reception

2pm Tea and Natter at Amblecote Wordsley

Wednesday 22nd March – 10.00am visit from Mount Pleasant School

7.30pm Les Oiseaux

Thursday 23rd March – 10.00am Visit from Mount Pleasant school

12.30pm Birch Coppice Soup and Roll

Friday 24th March – 1.30pm Friday Discussion Group – contact
Martyn Filsak for more details

Saturday 25th March –

Sunday 26th March – 10.30am Mrs Olwen Meller

Collection Last Week £141.00

Flowers:- From last week

Mission Boxes – please return to Margaret

Raffle prizes for Coffee Mornings and Tea & Chat always welcomed.

Diary Date

Wednesday 5th April Circuit Holy Week Walk – see notice board or speak to Margaret about how to join in all or part. Anyone able to join Revd Michael on the walk from Wesley to Brierley Hill?

Wednesday 19th April Spring Concert by Les Oiseaux 7.30pm Tickets
£4 to include light refreshments from Margaret

See poster for Keshar course at United Church Lye, starting 16th May.

Bible reading John 9:1–41

Gradual insights THIS WEEK WE EXPLORE THE POWER OF AN EYE-OPENING STORY. How often do we find ourselves saying 'I see' when we really mean 'I understand'? In today's Gospel reading, the contrast between them is clear: we read about overcoming physical blindness and also growing in understanding. But not everyone experiences or is open to both. Are we

First impressions

- What do you find striking about this image? •
- When have you not been able to believe your eyes? •
- What is God showing you through this week's Bible story?

Wesley Methodist Church

Minister: - Revd. Alan Combes 01384 823146

Lay Pastor: - Martyn Filsak 07947 879357

A prayer to action.

Lord, open my eyes to see what you are revealing. Open my mouth to speak about you. Guide my thoughts and increase my understanding. Stir my heart to love as you loved us. Move my hands and feet to serve you in others. In the name of Jesus Christ, my example and friend. Amen.

Notices

4th Sunday in Lent

Mothering Sunday

Sunday 19th March 2023

10.30am

Welcome to

Revd Alan Combes

Holy Communion

Church Contact Margaret Kite 01384 392310