Bible reading Matthew 9:9–13,18–26 Love in action THIS WEEK WE EXPLORE THE MEANING OF MERCIFUL LIVING. Jesus wanted mercy, not sacrifice. But what exactly is that? How should we use the power that we have to show God's love, compassion and forgiveness to those around us?

First impressions

- How is the joey (baby) protected by the koala mother?
- The Hebrew word for mercy – racham – implies protection, like a mother's womb. So, what does merciful living mean?
- How might you show God's love mercifully this week?

PRAYER

A prayer to action

God of mercy and justice, as we walk alongside those in our communities who seek mercy, kindness, or forgiveness, open our eyes to see them and our minds and hearts to reach out to them, that we may be moved to share your love and compassion in practical ways – and in Jesus' name. Amen.
