Bible reading Matthew 18:21–35

The meaning of forgiveness Peter asks Jesus about the extent of forgiveness. Jesus answers with a funny – and chilling – parable about a man who is forgiven much but who forgives very little, and is punished by his master for this attitude.

First Impressions

- What does it feel like to be set free after being trapped?
- When have you experienced been set free or let go?
- What does forgiveness mean to you?

Pray

Gracious God, there are debts to you and to others that we cannot pay. There are mistakes that we cannot undo. There are words that we cannot unsay. But because you forgive us, we can take another step, face another day with confidence, and rejoice at your love for us and for all creation. Amen.

REFLECT

Scrunch a piece of paper into a tiny ball and think of things you have done that hurt God. Now, gently unfold the paper, as a reminder of God's forgiveness, restoring things to where they were. Crease your paper up again, thinking about how we hold on to pain that others cause us. Can you think of a relationship that is a bit crumpled like this now? When you're ready, smooth it out again. Are you prepared to forgive and smooth out the relationship again? Ask for God's help.
