Jeremiah 31:31–34 God's new covenant.

God promises a new covenant. It will not be like previous covenants, nor like the written Law that the people had broken. The new covenant will be written on people's hearts and is summarised: 'I will be their God and they shall be my people.' Everyone will know God – and God's forgiveness.

First impressions.

- What ideas and beliefs are at the core of your being?
- What does God's promise 'I will be their God and they shall be my people', mean to you?
- How might having God's law written on your heart be freeing?

Pray

A prayer for others.

Dear Jesus, thank you that your promise of hope is for all people. Help us to share this good news with our friends and family, and everyone we meet. Amen.

REFLECT

On a piece of paper, draw a symbol of a promise or commitment you have made. You could draw a rainbow, a wedding ring, or other appropriate symbol. Say a prayer of thanks for the promises that God has made to you and all people.
