Mark 11:1–11 What kind of king is Jesus? Jesus sends two of his disciples to fetch a donkey on which he will ride into Jerusalem. As Jesus rides towards Jerusalem, bystanders greet him with shouts of acclamation. Some spread their cloaks, and others leafy branches, on the road as he passes by. When he reaches Jerusalem, Jesus goes immediately to the Temple. After looking around, he and his twelve disciples withdraw to Bethany for the night.

First impressions.

- What point do you think the cartoonist is making here?
- What different kind of king might Jesus have been?
- What kind of welcome might Jesus get in today's world?

Pray

A prayer of thanksgiving.

Blessed is the king Jesus. Hosanna in the highest! (clap three times, fast) Who comes in the name of the Lord God. Hosanna in the highest! (clap three times, fast) Who proclaims love and peace. Hosanna in the highest! (clap three times, fast) Amen.
