Mark 16:1–8 What it means to be Easter people

The women who come to Jesus' tomb early on Sunday morning find it open and empty. They see a young man in white robes, who tells them that Jesus is raised. They are to tell the disciples to go to Galilee where they will meet Jesus, risen as he had told them. With little else to go on (as yet), the women are both amazed and terrified, and afraid to speak to anyone.

First impressions.

- What are the reactions of the three women who visit the tomb?
- How does the Easter message transform your life?
- What does it mean to be shaped as a community by the joy and wonder of the resurrection?

Pray

A prayer of thanksgiving.

Lent and Holy Week is gone, that journey over. Maundy Thursday called us to service and devotion. Good Friday pained us and stained us and drained us. Saturday stopped us in our tracks, reflecting. Easter Day brings us resurrection that never will be over. Christ is risen for us and within us. Beyond the fluffy chicks and Easter eggs there is life in all its fullness. In the midst of our joys and delight: In the midst of suffering and pain: God is with us, God within us. Alleluia, alleluia, give thanks to our risen Lord. Amen.
