Acts 10:44–48 Surprised by God

Peter is preaching the gospel in Caesarea, and – just as at Pentecost – people are filled with the Holy Spirit. But these people are Gentiles. Those with Peter are astounded, but Peter knows this is because the gospel is for all people. The people are baptized and Peter stays with them for a while.

First impressions.

- What aspects of the Christian faith might be surprising or astonishing to others
- How could you step outside your comfort zone this week, to discover and experience your faith in new ways?
- How does/might your church show God's love and welcome to people who have different backgrounds or lifestyles to the majority?

Pray

Prayer of adoration

Amazing God, who created every language, who knows our every question before we even think it, who understands not only our words, but the thoughts, hopes, dreams and fears behind them. You hear the loudest cry and the smallest sigh. We are blown away by your love. We long to share it, especially with those who think they are beyond the limits. Amen.

REFLECT

Could you be better friends to somebody you know? Could you work on bringing an acquaintance into your circle of friends? Could you invite someone you don't know well for coffee?
