Isaiah 6:1–8 God: a glimpse behind the curtain Isaiah has a vision of God sitting on a throne in great splendour. An angel cries, 'Holy, holy, holy is the Lord'. Confronted by the majesty of God, Isaiah feels lost and unworthy. But an angel touches Isaiah's lips with a purifying hot coal and says that his sin is wiped out. Isaiah then responds to God's call, 'Who will go for us?', saying, 'Send me!'

First impressions

- What 'wow' moments have you experienced in your walk of faith?
- What worship activities or spaces help you to draw near to God?
- What opportunities are there to encounter God in your everyday life this week?

A sending out prayer

We praise you, God the Father, life-giver and creator of all. We praise you, God the Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord. We praise you, God the Holy Spirit, guide and friend. Surround us in your mystery, and be with us this coming week. Amen.

REFLECT

Isaiah invites God to send him. What do you think God would like you to do? You might choose to draw or doodle while you think and pray. Finish by praying: 'Holy, holy, holy is the Lord. Here I am. Send me.' Then spend a minute in silence listening for God
