1 Samuel 3:1–10,(11–20) *Being open to God The boy Samuel was apprentice to the priest Eli at the temple of the Lord in Shiloh. In the dark, three times he heard someone calling his name and thought it was Eli. Eventually, Eli realised that God was calling Samuel, and Samuel responded to God. God gave Samuel an insight into what was soon to happen and, as he grew up, all Israel came to know that Samuel was a great prophet of the Lord.

First impressions

- In what ways might God speak to you?
- How did Jesus show openness to listening to God in his ministry?
- What might God want to say or do in your life?

A prayer of adoration

Lord God, you spoke to Samuel in the middle of the night. He needed Eli's help to hear you; but you persisted till he heard. Lord, you speak to us – sometimes directly, the middle of the night is good! – sometimes through others, and that can be equally unexpected and amazing. You speak, you persist. Where would we be without you, most patient Lord? Amen.

REFLECT

The name 'Samuel' means 'God has heard' – given to him by his mother, Hannah, after God heard her prayer for a child. God called Samuel by name and calls us by name too. Do you know what your name means? If not, try and find out why you were given that name.
