1 Samuel 15:34–16:13 Change and being changed Saul has proved himself unworthy to be king and God has rejected him, telling Samuel to find and anoint one of the sons of Jesse as king. All of Jesse's sons meet with Samuel, who is warned by God not to pay attention to outward appearances, for God sees what is on the inside. It is only when Jesse's youngest son is brought in from tending the sheep that God says, 'This is the one'. Anointed by Samuel, the spirit of God came upon David.

First impressions

- How have you changed in the past few years? Are any of these changes a result of your faith?
- Can you recall a testimony (perhaps your own) of someone whose life has been transformed due to their faith in Jesus?
- What small changes could you make this week that will make a positive impact on others?

A gathering prayer .

Thank you, Lord, that you have been faithful to us through all the changes of our lives; we praise you, for there is no end to your faithfulness. Help us today to be open to you, and to trust you through all the changes still to come. Amen.

Make a list of all the changes you can think of. Circle all those that are positive in one colour. Circle those that are difficult but lead to good things in another colour.
