2 Samuel 1:1,17–27 *Let's talk about grief and loss

After Saul and his son, Jonathan, died, David sang a lamentation for them, including these words: 'Saul and Jonathan, beloved and lovely! In life and in death they were not divided; they were swifter than eagles, they were stronger than lions'. David also sang that Jonathan's love for him was greater than that of women. It ends 'How the mighty have fallen, and weapons of war perished!'

First impressions

- What does this image show?
- Do you find it easy to talk about your emotions?
- How does your church help those experiencing various kinds of grief and loss?

A prayer of approach

Father God, you were prepared to lose your own precious Son to save us. It is so hard for us to accept loss. But we are never alone when you are with us; you go with us, wherever our path leads us. Teach us today how to cope with the sadnesses life can bring. Help us always to be ready to rejoice with those to whom healing comes. But to be prepared to share the path of grief and loss with those who need it most. Amen.]

How would you like to be remembered? Write down a few words that you would like people to use to describe you and, this week, try to live life in a way that models those words
