2 Samuel 18:5–9,15,31–33 Reaping the whirlwind David commands his military generals to deal gently with his warring son, Absalom. When Absalom's forces are defeated, David's favourite child, riding on a mule, gets his famously abundant hair caught up in a tree. Found hanging there helplessly, the generals go against David's request and take their opportunity to wreak vengeance by killing him. They expect David to be delighted by his victory in battle; instead, David is devastated by the death of his still-beloved son.

First impressions

- What decisions taken by others influence your life today, positively or negatively?
- Where are the deep-seated conflicts in your community or the wider world? Can you pray for healing for these situations this week?
- Do you or someone you know have a big decision to make in the coming weeks?

A prayer for all ages together

Loving God, we are sorry for those things that break our connections and cut us off from other people: our mistakes, our assumptions, our pride. Forgive us, and help us to be peacemakers and bridge-builders, bringing people back into relationship with us and with you. Amen.
