James 3:1–12

What comes out when you are squeezed?

James uses a succession of striking images to illustrate the power of the tongue, the impact of which can be used for both good or ill, going well beyond its small size. Nobody is perfect, but this state of affairs does not befit followers of Jesus.

First impressions

- How do you react under pressure?
- How can you control what you say so it doesn't cause hurt to others?
- What words can you use to bless others this week?

A sending out prayer God.

You change the wriggly caterpillar into the fluttering butterfly, the swimming tadpole into a leaping frog! Change us too, in the power of your Holy Spirit. Re-form us to be sharers of your good news in thought, word and action. Amen.

A Prayer thought

Pope Francis offered the following teaching on different ways to fast (to give up something, so you can draw closer to God). Prayerfully consider what you could give up.

Fast from hurting words and say kind words; Fast from sadness and be filled with gratitude; Fast from anger and be filled with patience; Fast from pessimism and be filled with hope; Fast from worries and have trust in God; Fast from complaining and contemplate simplicity; Fast from pressures and be prayerful; Fast from bitterness and fill your hearts with joy; Fast from selfishness and be compassionate to others; Fast from grudges and be reconciled; Fast from words and be silent so you can listen.
