Diary Date

Tuesday 22nd October 7.30pm Prayer Meeting led by Martyn Filsak.

Job 1:1; 2:1-10 When you don't understand.

The story of Job begins. He is an honest and upright man, who loses everything (home, family, prosperity, health) yet refuses to blame God, believing that both good and bad comes from God's hand. A dialogue between God and Satan (called 'The Adversary' or 'The Accuser' in some translations) seems to indicate that God has allowed Job to be tested in this way.

First impressions

- What helps you make sense of things?
- What are you confused by in life? What questions do you wrestle with?
- Have you experienced God's peace/presence during a dark time in your life?

A sending out prayer

Do we know everything? No! Does God know everything? Yes!
Do we understand God? No! Does God understand us? Yes! Do we have faith in God? Yes! Does God have faith in us? Yes! Then let us not disappoint him:

Lord, help us to live as people of faith holding on tight to you.

Amen.

PRAYER THOUGHT

Get cosy, lying down, maybe with a soft blanket. Slowly breathe in and out. As you do think about the things that are tricky or difficult at the moment, tell God about these. Write a word of hope onto a pebble with a permanent marker. Carry this with you wherever you go as a reminder that even in the most difficult times there is hope.
